Infants Travel

What is the age group of an infant? ^

For safety reasons, children above the age of 3 days and under the age of 2 years, as on the date of travel, can travel as Infants. Age proof needs to be provided at the time of check-in.

Valid ID proof for Infants:

- Birth Certificate
- Mother's hospital discharge summary
- Vaccination certificate
- Passport

What if I don't have a valid proof for the infant's age? ^

In the event of a failure to produce a valid proof of age for the infant, full fare as applicable on the date of booking will be payable for the Infant and the Infant will be allowed to travel only subject to availability of seats.

Do I need to book a separate seat for an Infant? ^

Airport Check-in Requirements

No extra seats may be booked for Infants. Infants cannot travel in their own seat and must be seated in an adult's lap.

Terminal InformationHow many infants can travel per flight? ^

A maximum of 12 infants can travel per flight on an Airbus A320 and a maximum of 6 infants per flight on an ATR. However, only one infant per adult is allowed per flight.
